

Chiba Studies on Global Fair Society International Symposium
“Whither the ASEAN Integration: the Case for Inclusiveness”

<Date> Saturday, 19 November 2016, 13:00-16:10 (Registration to start at 12:30)

<Venue> Chiba University Nishichiba Campus
 Multimedia Lecture Room, 1st floor, School of Humanities and Social Sciences Building
 Admission fee, no prior registration needed

Chiba University (Japan) has started a large-scale research into the “fairness in global society”.

We will invite distinguished researchers from famous international and research organizations and discuss the issue of “inclusive development” of ASEAN. Along the way, we will also think about the sovereignty of nation states in the face of impending domestic issues including poverty alleviation and employment generation. The proceedings from the Symposium will, in a summary form, be handed to ASEAN-related international organizations for their future policy formulation with “inclusiveness” in mind.

(Main Panelists)

- Dr. Watcharas Leelawath (Executive Director, Mekong Institute)
- Dr. Ben Belton (Center for Economic and Social Development or CESD, Myanmar)
- Mr. Aung Hein (Center for Economic and Social Development or CESD, Myanmar)

There will be a simultaneous interpretation. It is suitable as a lecture for international understanding. Fairtrade products from some ASEAN and other countries will be displayed. Come and join us!

(Organizer) Chiba University Leading Research Promotion Program “Research into Future-oriented Fair Society”
 (Co-organizers) Grant-in-Aid for Scientific Research on Innovative Areas (Represented by Dr. Hikari Ishido and Dr. Seiichi Igarashi)

References: Faculty of Law, Politics and Economics, Chiba University, Research Group on Fair Society
 (mail: leading-21@chiba-u.jp)