

Hello, this is ISD. Here's our monthly newsletter for international students. 2025 is almost over! In Japan, we often say "Clean up this year's clutter this year." It's a tradition to start the new year fresh and clean! Want to give it a go?

Job Offer secured for April? Apply for Change of Status from "Student" to "Work" by end of January!

Normally, applications to change residence status starts 3 months beforehand. However, Immigrations say that if you have a job starting in April, they will accept applications between December and the end of January to avoid delays caused from high demand. Apply early! See details on Immigration Bureau site. If you're changing to "Engineer / Specialist in Humanities / International Services" or "Researcher," you can skip some documents by submitting an explanation sheet (Jap).

Japan's year-end and New Year holidays come with lots of changes — be careful!

During Japan's year-end and New Year holidays, office hours of ward offices and hospitals, bank fees, and train schedules change. Please check in advance. Garbage collection days also change! In Chiba City, there will be no collection from Sunday, Dec 28th to Sunday, Jan 4th. Please keep your garbage indoors during this period. The ISD office will also be closed from December 27 to January 4.

For those seeking employment in Japan

The Career Support Div. has a website for international students →. You can find information and advice about Japan's unique job-hunting process. We also recommend the seminar video \(in English\) given last year by Prof. Kou \(Faculty of Horticulture\).

About the Certificate of Eligibility for National Health Insurance

Students without My Number health insurance cards can use the Eligibility Certificate for medical visits. Paper Health Insurance cards expire at the end of March, but the Eligibility certificate (Shikakukakuninsho) remains valid — always bring it with you to see the doctor. If you're staying over a year, apply for a My Number card for convenience.
